

"In the Garden"

Snoqualmie Valley Clinic WSU Master Gardeners presents:

LANDSCAPE PRUNING

Facilitators: Alan Haywood:Arborist/Consultant, North Bend Library
Selena Ligrano:Horticulturist,Garden Hotline, Sammamish Library

Saturday, February 15, 2020

10:30 am at the North Bend Library, 115 E 4th St., North Bend, WA 98045

2:00 pm at the Sammamish Library, 825 228th Ave SE, Sammamish WA 98075

Speaking in NorthBend, Alan who worked as an Arborist for thirty years for the city of Issaquah now works as a private consultant. Additionally, he has long been giving classes on a variety of horticultural and arborcultural subjects. In this presentation you will learn about proper pruning techniques to enhance your landscape and improve health and vigor of your trees and scrubs.

At Sammamish, Selena who spoke at our series last year and has several degrees and certificates in horticulture, will cover the basics of cuts, techniques, timing, and tools of pruning. She will also discuss pruning plants by type with a few examples of the most common ones seen in the PNW garden.

For Future 2020 Talks:

March 21: Native Plants and Wildlife with Garden Hotline
April 18: Edible Containers with Darien Payne, MG and Pamela Wickard, MG
September 19: TBD
October 17: Perennials with Cleo Raulerson, MG
